Self-Assessment Result Plan – What’s Next?

After completing your self-assessment, add up your total score and use the guide below to help determine your next steps.

0 – 39: Keep Strengthening Your Foundations!

You’re still building your basic skills, and that’s okay! It’s important to take your time and solidify your understanding before moving on. We recommend:

-  Repeating Level 1 next term for more practice
-  Attending extra lessons sessions or workshops
-  Revisiting the video tutorials during the break

40 – 59: Making Progress, but Some Areas Need Work!

You’re developing well, but a few key areas might need more attention before moving up. Consider:

-  Repeating Level 1 to boost confidence in weaker areas
-  Identifying specific topics to focus on for improvement
-  Practicing regularly and using extra learning resources

60 – 79: Almost There—Time to Challenge Yourself!

You have a solid grasp of the basics and are nearly ready for the next level! To prepare for Level 2:

-  Continue practicing and refining techniques
-  Strengthen any weaker areas before advancing
-  If in doubt, check with your tutor for personalised advice

80 – 100: Ready to Move Up!

Fantastic work! You’ve demonstrated a strong understanding of the key skills, and you’re ready for the next challenge. Your next steps:

-  Enrol in Level 2 and expand your skills
-  Set personal learning goals for continued growth
-  Keep practicing, keep playing, and keep having fun!

 Need help deciding? If you’re unsure about your score or your next step, feel free to ask your tutor for guidance.

No matter your result, remember: every great musician starts somewhere! Keep practicing, stay motivated, and most importantly—enjoy the journey!
